

Callison Tighe & Robinson, LLC

Columbia, South Carolina

Callison Tighe dates back to 1947 as an independent legal practice primarily serving the real estate industry and has grown from a real estate-oriented practice to a full-service law firm. Six of the 14 attorneys with the firm, and staff members, are or have served in the Guard, Reserve, or are veterans. The firm actively supports the provision of pro bono legal services for military members and their families, and the nominator alone provided over 60 hours of legal advice this past year. Managing partner Mike Tighe restored a 1942 Willis Jeep that saw action during World War II after being dropped in a glider into Normandy ahead of the invasion by the 101st Airborne Division. Mr. Tighe loans this jeep for military celebrations to include the City of Columbia's Veterans' Day parade. <https://callisontighe.com>
