

Levi Rodgers Group @ RE/MAX Military City

San Antonio, Texas

Levi Rodgers Group @ RE/MAX Military City is a veteran-focused residential real estate sales group. A strong recognition of military service is engrained in the group's culture. In addition to receiving full pay and benefits while activated, the nominator was recognized on social media, in newsletters, and at quarterly and annual meetings. The CEO even arranged a call with two San Antonio Spurs NBA players for the nominator while he was deployed. When Hurricane Harvey hit, the CEO and senior leaders personally braved flooded roads to deliver snacks and beverages to an activated unit. They also sent the nominator and his deployed unit care packages and four Garmin enhanced wrist-mounted GPS units that enhanced communication for check-ins with platoon and colleagues. The Levi Rodgers Group @ RE/MAX Military City hires and promotes a workforce of 90% Guard and Reserve members and veterans, and offers a mentorship program for wounded service members transitioning into real estate.

<https://www.levirodgersgroup.com/recruit.php>